COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 26, 1919.

NUMBER 22

GEO. R. MILLER DEAD.

At One Time a Well-known Traveling Man Over the State.

BURIAL SATURDAY AT COLUMBIA.

Mr. Geo. R. Miller, who was born and reared at this place, and who was known throughout Kentucky, died at Lakeland last Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, aged 48 years.

The deceased was a son of the late Jo H. Miller and Lou F. Miller. His wife, mother and two brothers survive him.

For thirty years or more Mr. Miller was a traveling salesman out of Louisville, and he commanded a large trade. The last five or six years of his life he was a partner in Tinsley, Miller wholesale candy house, selling his interest the first of last year, at which time his health was rapidly failing.

About five months ago it was decided that it would be best to send him to Lakeland, and accordingly the order was made by the Jefferson county Judge, Mr. Miller's home being in Louisville.

The remains reached here, Columbia being his old home, Friday night about 10:30. Saturday morning the remains were interred in the family lot in the cemetery.

The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian Church, Columbia Lodge, No. 96, Free and Accepted Masons and Columbia Chapter No. 7, Royal Arch Masons, but the burial was private.

The deceased was an honorable, high-toned gentleman, and his death brought sorrow not only to his home people, but to friends throughout the State.

The funeral services were held at the Christian church, Rev. B. T. Watson and Eld. Z. T. Williams officiating.

There were a number of beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. Walker Bryant's sale last Thursday, drew a large crowd and bidding was spirited from the time the sale commenced until it closed. Many valuable articles were sold. All the furniture was comparatively new and of the best quality, and it brought fancy prices. There were more people in attendance than any sale held in Columbia for many moons. Any number of ladies were present, bidding and buying. A saddle horse was bought by John D. Lowe, Jr., for three hundred dollars. The two lots, cottage on each, brought $2,970 and were purchased by Walter Ingram, who also bought the main residence several months ago.

Don't forget the sale at 10 o'clock next Saturday at C. S. Harris residence.

Fertilizer.

I have on hand the V. C. fertilizers, the Red Cross, 14 acid. Also 16 and 20 acids, also a good tobacco grower. See me before making a purchase, and my get my prices.

D. E. Phelps, Columbia, Ky.

Miss Mollie Caldwell sold her residence, on Burkesville street, to Dr. H. W. Depp, consideration, $4,250. She bought the J. S. Breeding residence, situated on the street leading to the Graded school building for about the same price. Mr. Breeding will remove to a smaller residence for the present. He has only three in family now and he calculates to spend the winters in the South.

Sam Burdette's mule sale, last Saturday, brought a number of good buyers to Columbia. Thirty-two head were sold and they brought from $175 to $545 per pair. This was a fine bunch of mules.

D. E. Phelps shipped 150 hogs to the Louisville market, from Greensburg last Wednesday. He paid for them 13¢ to 17¢ cents per pound.

The bull which will be offered for sale at C. S. Harris' sale, next Saturday, is the finest individual in all this country. It should not leave the county.

Mr. V. Sullivan will remove from Campbellsville to Columbia. He will occupy the residence setting back from Water Street, owned by Mr. H. G. Chilson.

John W. Burton and Mrs. Clitie Burton, both of Purdy, procured licenses from the Adair county clerk's office, last week, to wed. This is the second marriage for each one.

Methodist Hold an Important Meeting.

Last Tuesday and Wednesday there was a large number of Methodist ministers and laymen and lay women in Columbia, being called here to attend a meeting of the Centenary Committee formed for the purpose of assisting in raising $35,000,000 in five years, to be expended in Christianizing the United States, helping to reconstruct in the War Zones and for the purpose of converting the heathen to the Christian religion. This district, embracing a number of counties is to raise $80,000, if we have been correctly informed. This sum can be easily raised by each member giving 10 cents per week during the time allotted for its collection. The $35,000,000 is to be raised throughout Southern Methodism. All the ministers and laymen were very enthusiastic, expressing themselves as being confident that the full amount would be paid in during the five years.

Wednesday morning Judge Charles Williams, of Hodgenville, laid out the work, the ministers and laymen returning to their respective homes, feeling confident that they would not fail in their great and laudable undertaking. Mr. Ed Hill, of Campbellsville, was Chairman of the meeting.

Tuesday evening Bishop Collins Denney, of Richmond, Va., delivered a discourse, one of the most interesting, the most learned heard in this place for many a day. It abounded in beautiful thoughts, clothed in the very choicest language and delivered in a very forceful manner. His subject was Paul's defense of himself before King Agrippa. The Bishop has traveled in many countries, and he gave to his hearers the scenes in benighted localities in a most entertaining manner. He occupied about one hour and fifteen minutes, the church being crowded to its fullest capacity, and no speaking ever addressed a Columbia audience who received closer attention. He also made a most interesting address to the congregation Wednesday forenoon. During the Bishop's stay in Columbia he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Cartwright.

From expressions heard upon the street the entire delegation was well pleased with Columbia and the hospitable manner in which it was entertained.

I am going to go to the balm, sunny South. My sale begins Saturday, at 10 o'clock

C. S. Harris.

At the sale of the farm and personal property of the late Larue Hurt, everything sold well. There was some stock sold, a lot of provender and farming implements. The farm was sold to C. L. Hurt, a son of the deceased, for $6,500, and he afterward sold it to his brother-in-law, K. W. Bell, who immediately took possession.

Died In Louisville.

Last Sunday week Mrs. Mollie Lillis, who was in her 61st year, died at the home of her brother, Mr. M. Ray Yarberr, Elliott Ave., Louisville.

She was the widow of the late Capt. J. H. Lillis, who was the keeper of the arsenal at Frankfort, during Gov. Beckham's administration, and who died some years ago. The remains of Mrs. Lillis were conveyed to Frankfort and interred by the side of her husband.

The deceased was born, reared and largely educated in this place, and is remembered by a number of Columbians.

She was afflicted for a long time, and was treated by some of the eminent physicians of the city of Louisville.

As a girl she was modest and attractive, possessing a genial disposition. Her old associates, yet living, will be sorry to learn that she has crossed to the other side.

Besides her half brother, she is survived by a devoted mother who had been her comforter all her life, and who now sorrows as only a mother can.

S. C. Neat, Clerk.

See Mr. Wilson.

Dr. G. L. Wilson, who was here with Paul Drug Company last year, advertising and selling Hydra-Seng, a curative medicine that should be in every household, is here this week. The medicine is guaranteed to restore patients who are suffering from the after effects of the flu, and systematic troubles. The Doctor will be in front of the Paul Drug Co., every day this week. He has a musician and ventriloquist with him, who will entertain the crowd before the lecture. Paul Drug Co., has sold the preparation for a year and it has given perfect satisfaction.

Birthday Dinner.

Last Sunday week Mrs. Martha Health, whose home is near Breeding, this county, celebrated her 77th birthday. A magnificent dinner was prepared by her neighbors and friends, and there were seventy-five invited guests.

Eld. F. J. Barger, of this place, was present and he reports that it has rarely fell to his lot to participate in a more elegant repast.

The day throughout was happily spent, and no one in the entire number wore a more pleasing smile than Mrs. Health, who received a number of useful presents.

Married.

Last Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Judge J. J. Simpson, Miss Lena Wilson and Mr. Robert A. Montgomery were united in wedlock by Eld. F. J. Barger. The groom is 61 years old and the bride 29. The ceremony was pronounced on Judge Simpson's birthday, he being seventy-four. The groom is a farmer and the couple will likely reside on the farm owned by the bride, near Wilson's old mill site. The bride was an orphan, but she has many friends, who trust that she and her husband will be happy and contented as long as they both may live.

Attend the sale of C. S. Harris next Saturday, at 10 o'clock if you want farm implements or some good household goods.

Mrs. Julia A. Burton Dead.

Last Sunday forenoon the subject of this notice passed away at her home, in her seventy-ninth year. She was the mother of J. B. and E. M. Burton, a devout Christian woman, one who who was looked upon by the people of the community as a mother in Israel. Her funeral was largely attended.

For Sale.

The latest designs in the new capes at Murray's

Another enterprising and popular gentleman, in the person of Mr. Walker Bryant, left, with his family, for Clark county, Ind., their future home, last Monday morning. It has been known for several months that Mr. Bryant had made up his mind to locate elsewhere, and it was believed that his new home would be Oklahoma, as he had some interest in that State. But on a trip he made to Indiana some weeks ago, he became well pleased with that State, bought two farms in Clark county, which has heretofore been mentioned in The News, leaving the first of the week to take possession of them.

Mr. Bryant is one of the best known men in Adair, and is popular throughout the county. He has frequently held positions, and for eight years he was a very efficient county clerk. He has been one of the Democratic leaders in the county, and he will be greatly missed in party councils. He is a straight, honorable man, and his gentlemanly bearing will soon win him substantial friends in his new home.

Mr. Bryant has an excellent family, consisting of a wife, two small sons and four daughters, one of whom is grown, Miss Dillie, who is popular with all the young people, and whose departure will be regretted by all her associates. The smaller ones will also be missed by their little playmates.

Mr. Bryant will always retain a warm place in his heart for the people of Adair county. They have taken pleasure in honoring him in the past, and he never violated a trust imposed in him.

We cheerfully commend this excellent family to the people of Clark county, Ind., knowing that it gains while Adair county, Ky., loses.

Be up-to-date and wear one of Murray's Spring Capes.

Special Request.

Lieut. Dr. Oliver P. Miller has consented to act as "Field Marshall" on Apr. 2nd, and to assist him in preparation he requests every returned soldier and sailor in the county to meet him on the Public square Mon., 29th, say by 1 o'clock, to retire to some suitable place and agree on a drill for April 2nd. The "Boys" will be "Mobilized," on the square Apr. 2 about 11 a. m., and march to the Public School Grounds, where dinner will be served. All friends to the soldiers as well as the soldiers themselves are requested to spread this information at once.

Does Adair County Want Good Roads?

What few Roads we have are in a deplorable condition. Where there aren't any they are badly needed. Roads make living easier. Come to the meeting of the Fiscal Court at the Court-house, at Columbia, on April 3rd, 1919, and discuss with the court and a Representative of the State Road Department what will be best to do. Something must be done. Let every taxpayer be there.

One More Big Drive.

AGENCY AWARDED LOCAL DRUGGIST

Paul Drug Company Secures Sale Rights for Trutona in Columbia.

Trutona, the perfect tonic, that has now become widely popular in Louisville and other cities of the State, now is on sale in the store of the Paul Drug Company.

The unprecedented success of Trutona is due entirely to its efficiency. Scores of Kentuckians are daily testifying to the beneficial results they have obtained from its use. What better proof of a medicine's merit could be desired?

Trutona is a tonic of the highest degree, exciting the appetite and invigorating the digestion. It is highly recommended for the treatment of dyspepsia, stomach trouble, liver and kidney troubles and catarrhal affections. Its action on the liver is almost instantaneous, exciting that most important organ when languid and resolving its torpor and chronic engorgement.

Trutona acts directly on the mucus membranes, producing a sharply stimulative effect and leaving a pleasant tonic condition. It is a very valuable agency in all catarral affections, including those of the alimentary tract, head and nose. Trutona is a prompt, efficient and absolutely safe laxative, it is a strength builder, unsurpassed by any preparation. Its use is recommended by run down and weakened men and women who are recovering from the serious after-effects of pneumonia, influenza and deep colds.

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Columbia at THE PAUL DRUG CO.

Don't forget that Davenport you promised yourself.
